

Best Practices

Best Practices refers to our belief in performing our tasks in the most effective and cost-efficient manner possible. If any one of our associates finds a better way to do something, we want to hear from them. Best Practices are also created to ensure consistency and fairness in the application of our guidelines and procedures and to prevent us from “reinventing the wheel” so to speak.