

Professional Development

The Firm is committed to the career growth of all our Associates. As part of our constant pursuit of excellence, we invest in your professional and personal development. Some of our ongoing in-house workshops include:

- Client Leadership
- Personal Leadership
- Consulting Skills
- Management Skills
- Communication Skills
- Relationship Building

Dion Durrell also provides a number of professional development benefits, including:

- Considerable study time for actuarial students and other professionals
- Reimbursement of tuition, materials costs and registration fees
- Time allowances for relevant conferences and seminars
- Reimbursement of relevant professional fees